Important to Advertisers.

Parties other than those having ledger accounts with this paper, who desire to place advertisements, are required to pay for transient advertisements in advance. An increase of 50 per cent will be charged for transient advertisements not paid for in advance, and no transient advertisement will be booked for less space than one inch. To illustrate: one half inch is 25 cents, one inch 50 cents for one time, when paid in advance; but if they will be 75 cents if charged. Transient advertisers will save money by remembering this notice, which applies to all cases, irrespective of financial responsibility.

Advertising rates furnished on application. Contractors are not allowed to exceed their space or advertise other than their legitimate business, except by paying especially for the same. Advertisements discontinued before the expiration of contract will be charged for at transient rates for the time inserted.

SATURDAY, MARCH 5, 1909.

HANNA AND MCKINLEY.

There is something ponderously amusing in Mr. Hanna's New York declaration. The statement was couched in the following modest and unassuming language: "A serious condition is confronting us, but so far as I know there will be no hasty action. The policy of the administration seems to be wisely conservative. I cannot say what Congress will do in the event of decisive action by the President, but as for myself he will have my enthusiastic support." Inasmuch as it is generally credited that Mr. Hanna is the "power behind the throne" in the present administration, these remarks are undeniably ludicrous. Especially do they seem a joke when it is remembered that Mr. Hanna's presence at the cabinet meeting a few days ago was followed by Secretary Lusk's statement to the effect that Spain could not be held responsible for the loss of the Maine. Reduced to its last analysis, Mr. Hanna's declaration is "my policy will have my enthusiastic support."

The esteemed Washington Post in this connection thinks it is "unfortunate, both for the administration and for himself, that every utterance of Senator Hanna is seized upon by the public press and paraded as having been inspired by the President." It is unfortunate, not only for the President and Senator, but for the country at large if there are many persons silly enough to believe any such Tommy pot as that referred to by the Post. Those who know anything about Hanna and McKinley must be credulous beings indeed, if they are foolish enough to believe that the Senator is even inspired by the President.

If the report that the squadron now cruising off Hong Kong has scarcely a third of the peace time quota of ammunition, there has been criminal negligence on the part of some one in authority. An investigation should be ordered, and those responsible for this unfortunate condition of affairs should be adequately punished. It is useless to have fine and costly battleships without ammunition enough to go into a skirmish.

The second Lucretia trial cost the county $4,195.20. The 20 cents is believed to represent the value of expert testimony.—Chicago Record.

This matter should be rigidly investigated, and if the assumption of our esteemed contemporary is correct the people of Cook county should refuse to pay that extra twenty cents, for it goes without saying that it is exactly twenty cents more than the expert testimony is worth.

The efforts of the Athens date line to capture a top-of-the-column first page position, was a distinct and dismal failure.

LANDMARK BLOWN UP.
NEW YORK, March 4.—Indian Head, one of the most historic landmarks on the banks of the Hudson, was today blown up by dynamite. The explosion, which was heard for a considerable distance, was regarded as an engineering feat. The blast, which was set off by a party of men, resulted in the destruction of the Indian Head, a structure which had stood for many years. The explosion was heard for a considerable distance, and the structure was completely destroyed.

LA CHAMPAGNE PASSENGERS.
NEW YORK, March 4.—One hundred and thirty-nine of the champagne passengers who were on board the La Champagne, a French steamer, today reported to the effect that there was less apprehension for among the steamer passengers, than among the other passengers on board the vessel, in consequence of the explosion.

SAGASTA'S ITALIAN ENEMY.
MADRID, March 4.—The Italian who a month ago ran up to Sagasta's carriage and threatened the Premier with a huge bulldog, is now being prosecuted for his conduct. The Italian is being prosecuted for his conduct, and the Premier is being prosecuted for his conduct.
